

Dreaming-Hope for Humanity

Softly and surely a consciousness held within the vibration of sound and the colour of a blended deep blue and powder blue light, with hints of emerald green swirls onto the Earth. This capsule of consciousness holds the ancient wisdom and insights from the future; it speaks of times on the Earth and the inner planes of the Creator's universe where peace, harmony and love are a natural occurrence, an everyday experience for all. This vibration speaks of a jewel of existence submerged in the universal light and vibrations, like a star cherished and loved by all. A civilisation existing on a higher plane, vibration and frequency than the Earth and yet the presence of the Earth is within every soul in existence. The civilisation actively exists in the future and is composed of souls that once walked the Earth. Their presence within the Creator's universe is innovative and yet relaxed and secure, they are the knowledgeable ones and they exist as a manifestation of the spiritual development of those who live now on the Earth. The Enos Civilisation is the ultimate achievement and manifestation of humanity's efforts. Like a nest in the sky holding a nation of vibrant and enlightened souls, this kingdom is so beautiful; it has several cities comprised of the energy love, peace and harmony. Happiness and contentment is the energy that extends from the future civilisation of Enos. The souls of Enos are very reflective because of the energy of peace that is so prominent within them.

Through the sound and consciousness of this energy a small capsule of insight into this future civilisation is given to humanity now. An insight into the development of humanity, the feeling of contentment and achievement, of successfully, overcoming goals to exist within the presence of the Creator as one source of light, but also as many unique personalities and qualities of love. An immense power extends from this civilisation; it is as if the light of the Creator like a sea has washed away all negativity to leave behind the essential true Creator energy, a place of pure bliss.

The sound and consciousness of this music empowers all who listen to it, manifesting a faith and a certainty that although chaos may be experienced on the Earth now, this will pass and an existence of peace will manifest for all to experience and live as. The Enos send tiny capsules of hope, faith and enlightenment from the future to enthuse, support and uplift humanity so that the future may be experienced by all. The music aligns you with your future accomplished and beacon of light self, helping you to reflect on what is needed now in your reality in order for you to start your journey of growth to manifest as the Enos, or to support this manifestation in the future on a higher plane as a school and place of learning that stems from peace, harmony and love. As you open your heart to listen to this music you will embody your future higher more evolved self, a self that embodies the purest vibration of peace, a self that is content and truly aligned with the soul of the Creator. Enos is a plane of existence that stems from the ascension and spiritual development of the Earth.

We, the Enos have placed this consciousness within the sounds that have beautifully and harmoniously manifest so that we may offer hope, inspiration and anticipation of a greater world appearing as all grow and ascend on the Earth.

All is well on the world; all is at peace when you allow yourself to absorb the sacred light and vibrations that flows from the future higher planes of vibration into the Earth. Remember that time is only a limitation of the Earth so we actively exist now; we are a part of your being. We send you our tears and effusions of joy, happiness and triumph, let our light surround you now and carry you forth, opening your entire being to the light of the Creator. Within these sound vibrations are ancient wisdom from the source of all creation, ways to achieve peace and an immense energy of support, encouraging unity, serenity and tranquillity. Allow yourself to open in harmony and peace to your higher more evolved self, let manifestation now begin, let the light of the Creator wash away all that is no longer needed so that you may exist as a valued member of the Enos Civilisation reflecting on your previous time and growth on the Earth.

The stillness and peace energies within this, our expression of our soul light will assist you in accessing peace on a new level and align you to your spiritual self. Let our sound vibrations touch your heart and inspire your soul.

In love,

Your future selves,

Enos Civilisation

New Wave- Journey of Awakening

Within this vibration of sound is a simple explanation of the journey and path of spiritual awakening, from an extension of a soul to the ultimate integration with the Creator. An explanation of accepting the sacred energy and qualities of the Creator while existing as a physical being, shifting into a light body and existing as a soul on the inner planes or heavens of the Creator's universe. This sound vibration is held within a glorious golden light that showers over those who connect with the sound vibration. The consciousness held within this music enables an understanding of spiritual growth and how each experience is a lesson of development and acceptance of the Creator's light to bring forth enlightenment.

The consciousness aligns you with your path of awakening, helps you to feel secure as changes occur and helps to lead you forward with clarity to aid further awakening and acceptance of the true self within you and the truth of the Creator. The consciousness encourages you to peel away layers of illusion to see clearly for the first time, experiencing where this new existence leads you. This sound is to enable all who wish to take a leap of faith and place their trust in the Creator to do so courageously free from fear and supported.

We, the great united souls of the Creator universe have poured our love and consciousness into this sound vibration to enable the awakening of humanity on the Earth; activating your awakening journey and encouraging your faith in the unknown energies of the Creator. Allow the sacred vibrations to propel you along your journey of awakening, bringing a new wave of energy and insights into your reality and being.

Universal Light Souls